

April 20, 2009

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter in the interest of Bryan Gonzales, a child with Down syndrome in the State foster care system. I have been Bryan's teacher at John Green Primary School for two school years – to my knowledge I have been his teacher since he entered state care, and I hope that this letter will serve as an advocating voice for Bryan to those making decisions about his permanent placement.